Teachers' Day

India celebrates Teachers' Day on September 5, a day that marks the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a renowned philosopher, and former President of India. This day is a tribute to the selfless contributions of teachers who play a vital role in shaping the minds of future generations. In Indian culture, teachers are revered as gurus, guiding lights who impart knowledge, values, and wisdom to their students.

Significance of Teachers' Day in India

Teachers' Day is a celebration of the teacher-student bond, acknowledging the tireless efforts of educators who nurture and inspire young minds. It's a day to express gratitude to teachers who make a significant impact on students' lives. In India, teachers are not just educators; they are mentors, role models, and friends who guide students through various stages of life.

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan: A Tribute

Dr. Radhakrishnan was a philosopher, statesman, and educationist who believed in the power of education to transform society. He was a strong advocate for education and believed that teachers play a crucial role in shaping young minds. His birth anniversary is celebrated as Teachers' Day to honor his contributions to education and his commitment to the teaching profession.

Role of Teachers in Indian Society
Teachers play a vital role in Indian society, where education is considered a key factor in personal and national development. They are responsible for imparting knowledge, values, and skills that help students become responsible citizens. Teachers in India face numerous challenges, including managing diverse classrooms, limited resources, and societal expectations. Despite these challenges, they continue to inspire and motivate students to achieve their goals.

Challenges Faced by Teachers in India

Despite the importance of teachers in Indian society, they face numerous challenges, including:

- Limited resources and infrastructure
- Managing diverse classrooms with varying student needs
- Societal expectations and parental pressure
- Administrative tasks and workload
- Limited opportunities for professional development Conclusion

Teachers' Day in India is a celebration of the teaching profession and the impact teachers have on students' lives. It's a tribute to the selfless contributions of educators who shape young minds and inspire future generations. By celebrating Teachers' Day, we acknowledge the importance of teachers in Indian society and express gratitude for their tireless efforts. As we celebrate this day, we must also recognize the challenges faced by teachers and work towards creating a supportive environment that enables them to excel in their profession.

DC addresses several pressing civic issues...

Issue of Erratic electricity supply and water shortages faced by many residents was highlighted and measures to be adopted to ensure the continuous availability of these essential services were discussed in detail.

Concerns over food adulteration and medical products, and safety compliance in restaurants and bars were also also discussed and Food Safety officers/drug inspectors were directed to monitor and to carry out regular checking drives to ensure the quality of the products and also to keep a check on meat vendors who are to be strictly monitored to ensure that the items are sold while following all the SoPs on hygiene and health

Also to ensure that development should be in a regulated way and not haphazard, Itanagar Planning Authority while throwing light on Itanagar Master Plan 2031 which is a visionary document for better Itanagar and which will foresee development of the city in every aspect to implement and enforce Itanagar Master Plan-2031 and AP Building bye-laws 2019 effectively.

The meeting concluded with a call for a collective effort from both the authorities and the citizens of Itanagar to work together in addressing these challenges.

The DC stressed that Public cooperation, along with timely government action, will be critical in improving the overall living conditions within the Capital Itanagar. Every participant actively participated and presented with suggestions and feedback on issues for the overall development of the State in general and Capital in particular.

Former Minister Medi Ram Dodum...

After joining the BJP in 1986, Dodum later switched to the Congress party in 1988. He served as secretary of the Arunachal Pradesh Congress Committee (I) and successfully contested the Bameng Assembly seat in 1995. He served as deputy minister of horticulture before being elevated to the rank of the cabinet minister for horticulture and fisheries in 1996- a position he held until 1999.

Dodum was known for his adventurous spirit, with a love for travel, hunting, fishing, and reading. He was also involved in framing the byelaws of the Arunachal Pradesh Women's Welfare Society in 1979, and was instrumental in forming the All Nyishi Youth Association (ANYA).

Governor KT Parnaik mourned Dodum's passing, and said that "in the demise of Shri Dodum, the state has lost a veteran political leader and a great philanthropist."

Conveying shock and grief over the demise of the former member of the state Assembly, the governor said: "Late Dodum made immense contributions towards the socioeconomic development of the people and the state in various capacities during his long and distinguished political career."

Extending condolence to the bereaved family, Parnaik offered prayers for strength for them to bear the irreparable loss, and for eternal peace of the departed soul.

Chief Minister Pema Khandu also mourned the death of Dodum, hailing him for his impactful leadership.

In a message to the bereaved family, Khandu said that Dodum "was like a father figure me. His demise has ended an era of resolve, farsightedness and perseverance. The void he has left will be difficult to fill."

"The people of Arunachal Pradesh – particularly of East Kameng district and the Nyishi community – will remain ever indebted and grateful to late MR Dodum ji for sowing the seeds of development as the elected representative of Bameng Assembly constituency from 1995 to 1999, the CM added.

"He was a dedicated public servant with a legacy of impactful leadership and warmth. Late odum made significant contributions to Arunachal Pradesh, especially in the fields of horticulture and fisheries -first as deputy minister, and then as a cabinet minister of the department" Khandu said. "His adventurous spirit and commitment to public service will be remembered by all who knew him," he said.

The Nyishi Elite Society (NES) expressed deep sorrow and pain at Dodum's demise.

DA holds meet with women's orgs to discuss and...

Earlier, All Tangsa Women Welfare Society (ATWWS) general secretary Roikim Ngemu underscored the need for a government-aided rehabilitation and de-addiction centre in Kharsang, along with community outreach and awareness programmes in all towns and villages in the district.

She also highlighted the need for establishment of a police outpost in Namphai and "strengthening of police monitoring in hotels, lodges and beauty parlours to check sex rackets."

ATWWS president Korong Longri spoke on the importance of yoga and skill development activities for the inmates of the rehabilitation and drug deaddiction centres.

ATWWS Changlang unit president Anem Hakhi Youngja stressed "the need for regulating liquor shop timings, as well as stringent checking of ILPs at check gates."

Singpho Women Organisation president Pisilu Singpho and its general secretary Pinna Kitnal M Singpho also spoke on the menace of drug abuse, ragging issues in schools, and ILP checking.

Singpho emphasised the need for appointing a counsellor in all schools to guide the students regarding drug abuse and the ragging menace.

Bordumsa Mahila Mandal general secretary Kaidim Singpho and Yobin Women Welfare Society president Yumani Yobin also spoke on drug abuse and how it is destroying the society.

SP Kirli Padu, taking into account the views of the civil society organisations, assured full cooperation from the police department, including 24/7 helpline centre, strict ILP checking, regular police patrolling, creation of additional police outposts/check posts, vehicle checking, etc.

ZPC Khomko Mossang called for smooth coordination between the district administration and the civil society organisations to eradicate the menace of drug abuse.

The DMO, the DDSE and the DEO highlighted their departments' activities with regard to tackling the issues of drug abuse, ragging issues, and III.

The DMO, the DDSE and the DFO highlighted their departments' activities with regard to tackling the issues of drug abuse, ragging issues, and ILP checking.

HoD of all the departments concerned attended the meeting.

Progress of SSA programmes...

Rana, who presided over the meeting, underscored the need for coordinators to conduct frequent school visits to ensure that the programme's guidelines and objectives are being diligently followed.

The DC also called upon the BRCs and cluster resource coordinators to intensify their monitoring efforts to ensure that "all schools adhere to the prescribed educational standards and that any issues are promptly addressed."

He reiterated the need for a collaborative approach for continuous improvement in the quality of education provided under the SSA.

Earlier, district project coordinator Zaro Lingfa provided a comprehensive overview of the SSA's achievements and progress.

SSA implementation in all six blocks in the district was reviewed, with specific reports presented by the block resource coordinators, during the meeting. This thorough evaluation highlighted both the successes and areas needing improvement, offering a clear picture of the programme's impact at the grassroots level.

ADC Himangshu Nigam and senior officials from the education department were also present at the meeting.

Wangsu attends capacity building...

He said this during a capacity building programme on sustainable palm oil production in Arunachal, organised by the agriculture directorate here, in association with New Delhi-based Centre for Responsible Business (CRB), the World Wide Fund for Nature-India (WWF-India), and the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) on Tuesday, September 3.

The minister emphasised the need for a comprehensive approach to sustainable palm oil production that addresses environmental, economic and social aspects, as well as the critical issue of human-animal conflict in oil palm plantations.

"Sustainable palm oil production will be a crucial component of Arunachal Pradesh' agricultural and economic development, but it must be approached with great care and responsibility," he said.

Experts from the WWF-India, the RSPO and the CRB delivered in-depth presentations on various aspects of sustainable palm oil production, including environmental, economic and social considerations, as well as the critical issue of human-animal conflict in oil palm plantations.

Additionally, two progressive oil palm farmers from Assam and Andhra Pradesh shared their experiences and best practices with the participants. The workshop was aimed at paving the way for developing Arunachal's farm policies to promote sustainable production, and to creating safeguards for natural resources. The meeting highlighted that palm oil can be produced sustainably by incorporating principles such as protection of high conservation value areas, as well as jurisdictional approaches. The three organisations said they are eager to work with the state government in developing policy frameworks for the state. Among others, the workshop was attended by WWF-India Ecological Footprint Senior Director Suresh Babu; RSPO Market Transformation (India & China) Deputy Director Ashwin Selvaraj; Agriculture Director Dani Yubbe, and CRB programme Officer Bhavya Sharma. Officers from the agriculture department, an oil palm farmers' organisation from Papum Pare district, and a representative from Patanjali Foods Ltd also attended it.

Certificate Courses for Accountants of Panchayats and Municipal Bodies Board for Local Bodies Accountants Certification (BLoAC)

There are shortfalls in the preparation of accounts across various tiers of Local Self Government (LSG) as evident from the audit conducted by the C&AG and Local Fund Auditor, various reports prepared by governing departments of LSGs and as highlighted by progressive Finance Commissions. One of the primary reasons is the shortage of competent accountants in adequate numbers willing to work in Local Self Governments (LSGs), particularly in the lower tiers and remote localities. The six tiers of LSGs are District Panchayats (DPs), Block Panchayats (BPs), and Gram Panchayats (GPs)/Village Panchayat in case of Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) and Municipal Corporations, Municipalities and Town Panchayats (TPs) in case of Urban Local Bodies.

To address this shortfalls, the Comptroller & Auditor General of India (C&AG) and the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) have entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for collaborating to develop a set of online courses of different categories of LSGs to create pool of accountants, preferably drawn from contiguous areas of LSGs, who would be willing to work as accountants in LSGs in their local areas.

The certification course was launched on the Audit Diwas, 2023 at the Comptroller & Auditor General's Office, which is generally observed on the 16th of November. Efforts have been made to make the Course practical oriented, so that students are able to prepare the accounts of Local Government Units where they are engaged.

After enrolment of the first batch by the end of February 2024, the screening exam for the first batch was conducted in April 2024 and results declared on 10th May 2024. Total candidates who registered for the two Courses (PRI & ULB) were 619 candidates initially. 364 candidates appeared for the exam out of which 232 qualified. Rate of qualifying the Screening Exam was 64.17% and 62.9% in PRI and ULB, respectively.

Two months is stipulated for study of the course material for the Main Exam.

In the meanwhile, registration is in full swing for the second Batch. For the second Batch, the registration started in March and there have been 550 plus registration till May 2024.

Various State Governments are coming forward to give a fillip to this endeavour. Special Secretary to Government of West Bengal has written to Mayor/ Municipal Commissioner of all Municipal Corporations, Municipalities/ Notified Area Authorities of West Bengal to sponsor nominations from their offices. In Rajasthan, all accounting personnel of the ULBs have been directed by the Department concerned to enrol for the Course. In Sikkim, all accounting personnel have been mandated to enrol for the Course.

Oyster mushroom cultivation for resource poor tribal farmers

C.K.Singh, SMS (Agronomy) Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Tawang (Arunachal Pradesh)

Mushroom is a wholesome food for all groups because of its nutritional and medicinal properties. can be used to serve the nutritional needs of the rural poor. Arunachal Pradesh has a great scope for commercial mushroom cultivation by recycling paddy, Millets and maize waste for higher income generation. It can cater to the growing food demand; solve unemployment issues and environmental pollution to a significant extent.

Further, mushroom husbandry can help the farming community by generating income by utilizing the farm waste. The substrate remains after cultivation of mushroom is more readily Digestible and palatable and palatable to livestock. Additionally, it can be exploited as a source of manure, and mulch for soil and others. Mushroom cultivation consumes huge quantity of organic wastes and degrades complex organic pollutants and thus helps to maintain clean environment.

Farm women, rural youth, resource poor, landless, small and marginal farmers.

Extension activity followed: During the baseline Rich in protein dietary fiber, vitamins and minerals, it survey, it was found that farmers use the paddy, millets and maize straw for feeding of animals. To make use of straw and generate alternate income from waste, oyster mushroom production was introduced.
